- Scott Baugh supports a complete ban on abortion with no exceptions, including for rape or incest or to save a woman's life. Baugh voted twice to force doctors to intimidate and harass women with unnecessary non-medical information about abortions. Baugh is closely aligned with groups that believe 10-year-old rape victims should be forced to give birth. Baugh even supported punishing doctors and gave tens of thousands of dollars to politicians who backed a bill to restrict access to a woman's use of IVF treatments to help get pregnant. Baugh would put the government, not doctors, in charge of women's medical decisions.
- *Baugh cashed in on his career in elected office to enrich himself and his corporate special interest friends. He was indicted on 22 criminal charges. And, as a result of his corruption, he ultimately admitted to committing nine civil violations and was forced to pay tens of thousands of dollars in penalties. While he was in the Assembly, he received more money from the tobacco lobby than any other legislator and voted against legislation meant to crack down on financial crimes, trying to help big corporations and their wealthy CEOs get away with consumer fraud. Scott Baugh supports a complete ban on abortion with no exceptions, including for rape or incest or to save a woman's life.

Baugh In 1998: "I Do Not Support Abortion In Any Form." "Baugh said he has always been staunchly anti-abortion and only accepted the campaign money because the racetrack is in his district. 'It's like Ronald Reagan always said: 'They support me, I don't support them,' Baugh said. 'The racetrack and its owner support me and my policies. I do not support abortion in any form.'" 2018: Baugh Opposed Abortion With No Exceptions For Rape Or Incest. In 2018, Baugh appeared on a list of candidates that "uphold strong traditional family values, oppose the killing of preborn children for sex selection, convenience and birth control, and oppose assisted suicide and euthanasia. Evaluation is based on voting record, questionnaire response, and/or public statement." An asterisk next to a candidate's name denoted the candidate "accepts abortion for rape and/or incest." The National Right To Life Committee Masterminded Model Legislation That Would Have Forced A 10-Year-Old Rape Victim To Give Birth, Then Said “We Would Hope That She Would Understand The Reason And Ultimately The Benefit Of Having The Child.” “The 10-year-old Ohio girl who crossed state lines to receive an abortion in Indiana should have carried her pregnancy to term and would be required to do so under a model law written for state legislatures considering more restrictive abortion measures, according to the general counsel for the National Right to Life. Jim Bopp, an Indiana lawyer who authored the model legislation in advance of the Supreme Court’s decision overturning Roe v. Wade, told POLITICO on Thursday that his law only provides exceptions when the pregnant person’s life is in danger. ‘She would have had the baby, and as many women who have had babies as a result of rape, we would hope that she would understand the reason and ultimately the benefit of having the child,’ Bopp said in a phone interview on Thursday.” Politico, [7/14/22]

Baugh Voted For AB 2389 In The Judiciary Committee. California State Assembly, AB 2389, [4/21/98]

- AB 2389 Would Have Prohibited “Partial-Birth” Abortions And Fined Doctors Up To $100,000. “This bill, notwithstanding the Therapeutic Abortion Act, would prohibit a person from knowingly performing or attempting to perform a partial-birth abortion, unless certain requirements in addition to the Therapeutic Abortion Act are met, including the requirement that the physician and surgeon reasonably believes that the partial-birth abortion was reasonably necessary to save the life of the pregnant woman and reasonably believes that no other procedure would suffice for that purpose. [...] The bill would provide that violation of the prohibition constitutes unprofessional conduct under the Medical Practice Act and would require the Division of Medical Quality of the Medical Board of California to impose a civil penalty of not less than $10,000 and not more than $25,000 for a 1st violation and not less than $50,000 and not more than $100,000 for a subsequent violation.” California State Assembly, AB 2389, [2/20/98]

Life At Conception Act: “This Bill Declares That The Right To Life Guaranteed By The Constitution Is Vested In Each Human Being At All Stages Of Life, Including The Moment Of Fertilization, Cloning, Or Other Moment At Which An Individual Comes Into Being.” H.R. 421, Introduced [1/20/23]

The Life At Conception Act Would Implement Equal Protection Of The Right To Life For “Each [...] Preborn Human Person.” “To implement equal protection under the 14th article of amendment to the Constitution for the right to life of each born and preborn human person. [...] To implement equal protection for the right to life of each born and preborn human person, and pursuant to the duty and authority of the Congress, including Congress’ power under article I, section 8, to make necessary and proper laws, and Congress’ power under section 5 of the 14th article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the Congress hereby declares that the right to life guaranteed by the Constitution is vested in each human being.” Congress.gov, [1/20/23]

The Life At Conception Act Does Not Include Exceptions For IVF. “Most House Republicans have cosponsored a bill declaring that life begins from the moment of conception, a position under increased scrutiny after the Alabama Supreme Court ruled that frozen embryos are ‘unborn children.’ This Congress, 125 House Republicans — including Speaker Mike Johnson — have cosponsored the ‘Life at Conception Act,’ which states that the term ‘human being’ includes ‘all stages of life, including the moment of fertilization, cloning, or other moment at which an individual member of the human species comes into being.’ The bill does not include any exception for in vitro fertilization (IVF), a reproductive treatment that allows mothers to fertilize several eggs outside the womb in order to increase the chances of a viable pregnancy.” Business Insider, [2/23/24]

Baugh cashed in on his career in elected office to enrich himself and his corporate special interest friends.

2001: After Leaving The Legislature, Baugh Joined Manatt, Phelps, And Phillips, A Lobbying Firm. “Former Assembly Republican Leader Scott Baugh of Huntington Beach, a pro at brokering deals with Democrats at the Capitol, has sealed yet another deal -- for himself -- at a law firm headed by a former Democratic national party chairman. ‘It’s not a big leap to work with Democrats,’ said Baugh, who signed on with Manett [sic], Phelps and Phillips LLP in Los Angeles last month. [...] Baugh’s new job, like his old one, will require weeknights in Sacramento. He’ll be helping Orange County businesses, such as Affordable Housing Resources, put together a legislative package and figure out how to push their agenda. State law, however, prohibits Baugh from directly lobbying lawmakers on behalf of businesses for one year after he leaves office. Even though Baugh left public office in December because of term limits, he will continue to play a key role in rebuilding the state’s Republican party, whose elected membership dropped by eight in both the state Legislature and Congress.” [Orange County Register, 1/3/01]

Baugh Lobbied Against AB 523, Which Prevented Daystar, A Televangelist Network And One Of Baugh’s Clients, From Purchasing Coast Community College District’s PBS Station, KOCE TV. “As Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger considers whether to sign a bill that could save the county’s only public-broadcast television station, attention has centered on behind-the-scenes lobbying to derail legislation that would keep the station as a PBS affiliate. The lobbying raised some questions because it was led by county GOP chief Scott Baugh on behalf of Texas-based televangelist network Daystar Television. [...] Baugh declined to comment. The bill, AB523, would let the Coast Community College District sell the PBS station to its own foundation, rather than to the highest bidder as state education code specifies. The Register has a joint marketing partnership with KOCE-TV. [...] After Daystar hired lobbyist Baugh and his company, Platinum Advisors LLC, Republicans -- even sponsors of the bill -- started pulling their support. 'I would say Scott was extremely effective at dissuading Republicans from voting for this bill,' said Assemblyman Tom Umberg, D-Santa Ana, a sponsor of the bill. 'They had about seven people out there lobbying.'" Orange County Register, [9/28/06]

He was indicted on 22 criminal charges.

1996: Baugh Faced More Than 20 Criminal Charges, Including Felonies, Related To His Recruitment Of A Democratic Spoiler Candidate To Swing An Election

1995: Laurie Campbell Said She Was Running For Assembly To Represent Conservative Democrats. "In the most pivotal Assembly race in recent California history, at least one of the candidates is not necessarily competing to win. Laurie Campbell, a Democrat, says she got into the 67th Assembly District race because it appeared that four Republican candidates might split the vote, allowing the lone Democrat, Linda Moulton Patterson, to capture the conservative district in northwest Orange County. [...] Campbell said that she knows Baugh, whom she described as conservative, and that 'we share similar viewpoints' on most things. 'There is one conservative Republican,' she said, 'and I am a conservative Democrat.'" Los Angeles Times, [10/19/95]

October 1995: The Los Angeles Times Reported "Rampant" Speculation That "Campbell Is A Republican Plant" To Split The Democratic Vote. "Talk has been rampant since the nomination period closed on Sept. 21 that Campbell is a Republican plant. Assemblyman Bill Morrow (R-Oceanside) told table mates at an Orange County Bar Assn. luncheon last week that Campbell 'is our candidate,' according to one lawyer there. Morrow, who backs the recall and has endorsed Republican Scott Baugh in the race, confirmed the remark but said it 'was based on rumor. I have no firsthand knowledge of it. . . . Obviously, as you gleaned, it would certainly benefit the Republicans to have more Democrats in the race.'" Los Angeles Times, [10/19/95]

Baugh Initially Denied That He Knew Campbell At All. "Baugh's campaign maintains that he is the only 'solid conservative.' He has called Tillotson 'moderate to liberal' on social issues. Campbell said she plans on 'spending very little' in the race and does not expect to hire a campaign consultant. Baugh denied any association with her campaign. 'I had nothing to do with her candidacy,' he said. In an interview with The Times, Baugh at first denied even knowing Campbell. But Baugh amended his statement after a Times reporter noted that he and Campbell attend the same church and that Democrats are calling her a plant. 'I do want to clarify' the initial comment, he said. 'I do know Laurie and did know she went to Mariners. . . . I don't know why she is in that race.'" Los Angeles Times, [10/19/95]

Laurie Campbell, The Democratic Spoiler Candidate, Testified That Baugh Was Also A Part Of The Scheme To Recruit A Democratic Spoiler Candidate To Swing The Election. "Baugh (R-Huntington Beach) also was instrumental in recruiting a longtime friend to run as a Democrat last year in the hope of siphoning support from a Democratic rival of Baugh's in a Nov. 28 special election, according to an investigator's affidavit filed in support of a search warrant. Prosecutors back up this claim with pages of testimony from the former decoy Democratic candidate, Laurie Campbell, who contends that Baugh was involved in the plan from the very beginning. Campbell said Baugh had conversations with her about 'diluting the Democratic vote' and about paying her legal bills when the plot went sour, according to a district attorney's investigator." Los Angeles Times, [3/22/96]

Baugh Was Charged With Four Felonies And 18 Misdemeanors, Including Falsifying Campaign Finance Reports And Persuading Another Person To Commit Perjury. And, as a result of his corruption, he ultimately admitted to committing nine civil violations and was forced to pay tens of thousands of dollars in penalties.

1999: Baugh Paid A $47,900 Penalty; He And His Treasurer Acknowledged They Violated California’s Political Reform Act Nine Times By Failing To Report Contributions And Returning Them In Cash.

“Assembly Republican leader Scott Baugh agreed Tuesday to pay a civil fine of $47,900 for nine violations of the state Political Reform Act, ending a political misconduct case that began with Baugh’s election in 1995. [...] In the settlement approved Tuesday, Baugh and Traxler agreed that they violated state campaign laws by illegally accepting an $8,800 cash contribution from a Huntington Beach merchant and failed to properly report a $1,000 contribution from the spouse of an eventual Democratic opponent. The pair then returned the contribution in cash, another violation. State law forbids cash transactions of $100 or more.” Los Angeles Times, [7/28/99]

While he was in the Assembly, he received more money from the tobacco lobby than any other legislator ...

In 1999-2000, Assembly Member Scott Baugh Was The Largest Recipient Of Tobacco Money. “The largest recipients of tobacco industry campaign contributions in 1999-2000 were Assembly member Scott Baugh (R-Huntington Beach) $90,000; and Senator Ross Johnson (R-Irvine) $83,000. ... and voted against legislation meant to crack down on financial crimes, trying to help big corporations and their wealthy CEOs get away with consumer fraud.

Baugh Voted Against Increasing Labor Protections For Workers In The Garment Industry, Such As Enforcing Punishment On Corporations That Withheld Payment From Employees. “In February 1999, Assembly Member Steinberg introduced A.B. 633 which revised statutes related to registration of garment contractors and manufacturers, as defined, the liability of such entities for violations of specified labor laws, and the collection of unpaid wages of workers employed in the garment industry. Specifically, the bill ensured that a person engaged in garment manufacturing who contracted with another person for garment manufacturing shall guarantee payment of wages and any damages and penalties arising from the failure to pay all wages due by the manufacturing. The bill provided that employees may enforce this guarantee by filing a claim with the Commissioner for payment by the guarantor. If the claim was not resolved within 60 days of filing, employees could bring a civil action against the guarantor. The bill also provided that the 10 largest shareholders of non-publicly traded corporations, as specified, shall jointly and severally be personally liable for all debts, wages or salaries due to owing to laborers who perform garment manufacturing for the corporation. Baugh: NAY” AB 633, [9/10/99]

Baugh Voted Against A Bill That Would Strengthen Law Enforcement's Ability To Investigate Financial Crimes. “In August 1998, Assembly Member Papan introduced A.B. 976 which specified that peace officers were allowed to testify about hearsay before a grand jury and changed the procedures for obtaining and disclosing specified utility, escrow, title and financial documents. The bill would except from the confidentiality provisions of the California Right to Financial Privacy Act the dissemination of financial information and records pursuant to a court order upon written application by a peace officer, under specified conditions relating to certain felony financial crimes. The bill also provided that utility records, escrow records or title records must be issued upon application by a peace officer showing reasonable cause to believe the information was relevant to an ongoing investigation of felony financial crimes. The bill’s author, Assembly Member Papan, wrote that the bill provided ‘California financial investigators and prosecutors with the necessary tools to effectively investigate and prosecute financial crimes. Scott Baugh supports Donald Trump, who plans to create a deportation force that will remove undocumented immigrants from their homes including those who have lived in the country for over a decade. Baugh voted against requiring hate crimes against Asian Americans and incidents in schools to be reported. Baugh supported the extortion and intimidation of immigrants by voting against rules to protect immigrants from being forced to work in dangerous, illegal situations.

Scott Baugh supports Donald Trump, who plans to create a deportation force that will remove undocumented immigrants from their homes...

CNN Headline: “Trump Explains His Militaristic Plan To Deport 15-20 Million People.” “The topic on which Trump had the most concrete details is his plan to deport many millions of undocumented immigrants. Trump repeated false claims that many migrants are former prisoners or have been institutionalized in their home countries. CNN has reported there is no data to support the idea that a rise in immigrants drives a rise in crime. Most measures of violent crime in the US have actually been falling. While he didn’t use the derogatory term, Trump pointed to ‘Operation Wetback,’ the deportation initiative taken along the border with Mexico during the Eisenhower administration, as a model. In 1954, border officials worked with local law enforcement to, they claimed, round up more than 1 million Mexican nationals and move them to the Mexico side of the border. Historians, as CNN reported in 2016, have argued that far fewer people were actually deported, since many people were apprehended multiple times. They also note that many US citizens were caught up in the dragnet and mistakenly deported.” CNN, [5/1/24]

2018: Baugh Said He Opposed Obama’s Executive Order Establishing DACA, Of Which He Said, “As A General Rule You Should Not Get To The Front Of The Line If You’re Not Here Legally – Period.” “Baugh said he ‘objects’ to the children of undocumented immigrants being used as a ‘political football.’ But he also opposed the program ordered by President Barack Obama that gave those children brought to the country illegally some documentation and status. ‘As a general rule you should not get to the front of the line if you’re not here legally -- period,’ Baugh said.” City News Service, [4/27/18]

2018: Baugh Opposed Any Action For DREAMers Until “You Have The Border Secured.” “Baugh also recognizes the dilemma of children brought to the country illegally by their parents. ‘But there shouldn’t be any reform or deal until you have the border secured,’ Baugh said. ‘Because I know what happens. I saw in 1986 the amnesty plan with President Reagan. They didn’t secure the border and it signaled to everyone to come to America legally or not. ‘So I don’t think you do anything with any group until you secure the border. Once you do that you stopped the problem from getting worse and then you can solve the problem.’” City News Service, [4/27/18]

Baugh voted against requiring hate crimes against Asian Americans and incidents in schools to be reported.

Baugh Voted Against Requiring The Department Of Education To Report Hate Crimes And Incidents In Schools On The Basis Of Race, Color, Religion, Ancestry, National Origin, Disability, Gender, Or Sexual Orientation. “In January 2000, Assembly Member Villaraigosa introduced A.B. 1785 which required the Department of Education to include the reporting of hate-motivated incidents and hate crimes, as defined, on the standard crime reporting form and revised the state educational curriculum to include human relations education. The bill stated that it was the intent of the Legislature that public schools have access to supplemental resources to combat bias on the basis of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, disability, gender, or sexual orientation, and to prevent and respond to acts of hate violence and bias related incidents. [...] Baugh Nay” AB1785, [1/26/00]

Baugh supported the extortion and intimidation of immigrants by voting against rules to protect immigrants from being forced to work in dangerous, illegal situations.

Baugh Voted Against Making It A Misdemeanor To Threaten To Report A Person As Undocumented Or Have Them Deported In Order To Coerce Them To Work Below The Minimum Wage Or Work In Unsafe Or Unlawful Conditions. “In December 1994, Assembly Member Napolitano introduced A.B. 81 which made it a misdemeanor for a person to attempt to induce another person, by threatening to report the person as an undocumented alien or threatening to have the person deported – to work below the minimum wage, work in unsafe or unlawful working conditions, or purchase food, housing, transportation, clothing, tools, or any item for use in the workplace. The bill also established a new section in the civil rights law providing that all persons in the state had the right to be free from any criminal intimidation on the basis of citizenship or legal residency in the United States. As a California Assemblyman, Scott Baugh was indicted for more than 20 criminal charges, including 4 felonies, for campaign finance fraud and perjury.

Baugh Was Charged With Four Felonies And 18 Misdemeanors, Including Falsifying Campaign Finance Reports And Persuading Another Person To Commit Perjury. “Baugh, of Huntington Beach, was charged with four felonies, including falsifying campaign reports and persuading another person to commit perjury. He also was charged with 18 misdemeanors for allegedly concealing the source of campaign money.” Los Angeles Times, [3/23/96]

- Baugh Was Also Charged With Four Counts Of Perjury. “Assemblyman Scott Baugh (R-Huntington Beach) was indicted Friday by the Orange County Grand Jury on four felony counts of perjury, and for 18 misdemeanor violations of the Political Reform Act during his election campaign. One of the perjury charges involves Baugh’s getting his former campaign treasurer, Dan Traxler, to lie about the source of a $1,000 cash donation.” Los Angeles Times, [3/23/96]

He then tried to pass legislation that would have made it more difficult to prosecute crimes similar to the ones he was accused of.

1997: Baugh Sponsored A Bill That “Might Have Exonerated” Him When He Was The Target Of A Grand Jury Investigation

1997: Baugh Sponsored Legislation That Required Prosecutors To Disclose Exculpatory Evidence To Grand Juries. “Legislation by Assemblyman Scott Baugh to boost the rights of criminal defendants in grand-jury proceedings was approved Monday by the state Senate and sent to Gov. Pete Wilson. The measure, inspired by Baugh's encounter with the Orange County grand jury last year, would require prosecutors to tell grand jurors about evidence that might exonerate the target of their investigation. The bill places the wording of a 1975 state Supreme Court decision into state law. It passed on a 38-0 vote with no debate. The legislation is backed by criminal-defense attorneys and opposed by the California Judges Association. Prosecutors, initially opposed, were neutral on the bill after Baugh accepted amendments that addressed their concerns. Wilson has not taken a position on the measure.” [Orange County Register, 6/3/97]

Orange County Register: Baugh's Indictment Was Thrown Out When “When A Judge Concluded That Prosecutors Kept From The Jury Evidence That Might Have Exonerated Baugh.” “‘This is a matter of fundamental fairness,’ Baugh said Wednesday. ‘If you have evidence that shows a target is innocent, you disclose it.’ Baugh introduced the bill in reaction to his indictment last year by the Orange County grand jury on charges of election-law violations. Most of that indictment was thrown out earlier this year when a judge concluded that prosecutors kept from the jury evidence that might have exonerated Baugh.” [Orange County Register, 6/12/97]

Baugh Called The Bill “A Matter Of Fundamental Fairness.” “‘This is a matter of fundamental fairness,’ Baugh said Wednesday. ‘If you have evidence that shows a target is innocent, you disclose it.’ Baugh introduced the bill in reaction to his indictment last year by the Orange County grand jury on charges of election-law violations. Most of that indictment was thrown out earlier this year when a judge concluded that prosecutors kept from the jury evidence that might have exonerated Baugh.” [Orange County Register, 6/12/97]

When Baugh was Chair of the Orange County Republican Party, twelve of his Republican operatives were charged on felony voter fraud claims.

2004 – 2015: Baugh Chaired The Orange County GOP. “Longtime behind-the-scenes Republican volunteer and donor Fred Whitaker was unanimously elected Monday to take over chairmanship of the Orange County GOP, filling the spot being vacated by Scott Baugh. [...] Baugh, former GOP leader of the state Assembly, had held the chairmanship for 11 years. He said he was stepping down to spend more time and family and business matters.” Orange County Register, [1/20/15]

March 2006: A Democratic Committee Found Evidence That Orange County Residents Were Registered To Vote As Republicans Without Their Knowledge Or Consent. “A Democratic committee said it has gathered evidence showing that as many as 600 newly registered Republicans – part of an increase touted by the party in recent months – may be fraudulent. Republican Party officials acknowledge there are some registration problems but say the scope is much smaller than Democrats claim. So far, the Democratic Voter Education and Registration Fund has given the Orange County Registrar of Voters Office 37 signed complaints in which Orange County voters said they were switched to Republican registration without their consent.” Orange County Register, [3/1/06]

Baugh Blamed “A Few Individuals” Who Were Fired From The Orange County Republican Party For “Inaccuracies” On Voter Registration Cards And Were The Subject Of Voter Complaints. “Scott Baugh, chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Orange County, said he believed the problems were confined to a few individuals who were fired over the past two months for ‘inaccuracies’ in registration cards or because they were the subject of voter complaints. ‘We’ve received six complaints out of the 15,000 letters we sent out to welcome people to the party when they register,’ Baugh said. He did not identify the workers who were fired, one on Jan. 18 and two more on Feb. 2.” Orange County Register, [3/1/06]

Baugh Blamed A Company The County Republican Party Contracted With, Which It Paid Per-Registration. “The county Republican organization, chaired by former state Assemblyman Scott Baugh, put the blame on its former contractor, Bader and Associates. The firm was paid on a per-registration basis. Baugh told the newspaper the party no longer uses a contractor, overseeing its own registration efforts. He cast the party as a victim of the fraud, saying it paid to have members on its rolls when in fact those people will not vote Republican.” Metropolitan News Enterprise, [4/10/06]

October 2006: The Orange County District Attorney Announced It Would Arrest 12 Defendants In Felony Voter Fraud Claims, Who All Had Gathered Signatures For Republicans. “After a five month investigation, police are looking for five signature-gatherers who were charged last week with tricking voters into registering or re-registering as Republicans. They are among 12 defendants accused of felony violations of state election laws after they were paid a $10 bounty to recruit new Republicans, District Attorney Tony Rackauckas said at a press conference Monday morning. But instead of signing up legitimate Republicans, the signature-gatherers duped people who thought they were signing petitions against child molesters or for lower taxes, Rackauckas said. Seven of the 12 defendants have been arrested and await trials that could result in prison terms of up to three years each.” Orange County Register, [10/31/06]

Dave Min has spent his career advocating for workers. In the State Senate, Dave has been a leader on language access issues, ...

Press Release: “Senator Dave Min Introduces Legislation To Create New Office Of Language Access.” “Senator Dave Min (D-Irvine) announced today that he has introduced Senate Bill (SB) 1078 to establish the Office of Language Access (OLA) within the California Health and Human Services Agency (CalHHS). The OLA would be responsible for the oversight, accountability, and coordination of language access plans across CalHHS departments. Additionally, the OLA will serve as a central hub for building multilingual capacity within the state’s healthcare delivery system and ensure limited-English proficient individuals have access to government services. Not only will the OLA close an important gap for those seeking a broad spectrum of health services, the OLA will bolster California’s ability to meet statutory language requirements that apply to Medi-Cal health plans.” Senator Dave Min, Press Release, [2/20/24]

... and he’s fought for higher wages for working people and for expanded investments in apprenticeship programs at our high schools and community colleges, because he believes that the American Dream should be attainable for everyone, not just those with college degrees.

Min Said More Adult Education And Vocational Training Are Needed. “In Congress, I want to focus on how we can rethink public education in ways that prepare and train children and also adults for the rapidly changing economy. More vocational training and adult education programs will be needed as AI and automation come into play more and more. We should be rethinking how we utilize our K-12 and higher education institutions, and I hope to be a thoughtful voice in this discussion, even as I continue to push hard to emphasize the basics of good teachers and smaller class sizes across our education system.” Dave Min For Congress, accessed [7/19/24]

Scott Baugh refused to say that the 2020 election was legitimate. He’ll be a radical Republican who cares only about pleasing Donald Trump and his MAGA allies. Baugh will stand with his fellow MAGA Republicans to overthrow our democracy, taking power by any means necessary and has not condemned the violent MAGA insurrection on our democracy, and has repeatedly re-stated his 100% support for Trump, calling the recent criminal conviction of the former President– a unanimous verdict from 12 average citizens– a “politically motivated.”

Scott Baugh refused to say that the 2020 election was legitimate.

April 2022: Baugh Declined To Say Whether Biden Won The 2020 Election. “Webber, Burley and Baugh all declined to answer a yes/no question on whether they acknowledge Joe Biden as the winner of the 2020 election; West and Porter said yes.” OC Register, [4/21/22]

April 2024: Baugh Attended A High Dollar Fundraiser With Speaker Mike Johnson. “Speaker Mike Johnson will be the featured attraction at a Newport Beach dinner Wednesday raising funds to attempt to elect more Republicans to the House. Tickets range from $1,000 — which admits one person to the 6 p.m. dinner — to $50,000, which purchasers are designated as event chairs and receive two dinner tickets with head table seating, two tickets to a 5 p.m. VIP reception and the opportunity to take a picture with Johnson, R-Louisiana, according to an invitation obtained by City News Service. Other ticket packages are priced at $3,300, the individual contribution limit to a candidate for one election, $6,600 and $25,000. Reps. Young Kim, R-Anaheim Hills, and Michelle Steel, R-Seal Beach, are also set to attend, along with former Assemblyman Scott Baugh, who is seeking the 47th District seat which Rep. Katie Porter, D-Irvine, relinquished to unsuccessfully run for the Senate seat formerly held by the late Dianne Feinstein, and small business owner Matt Gunderson, who is challenging Rep. Mike Levin, D-San Juan Capistrano, which straddles Orange and San Diego counties.” Times of San Diego, [4/3/24]

June 2018: Baugh Effusively Praised Trump, Who He Said Did A “Tremendous Job,” Like “No Other Republican President Has Ever Tried To Do With Respect To Dismantling The Administrative State.” “Baugh repeatedly talked about how he wants to work with his Republican colleagues in Congress, and he says things like ‘President Trump has done a tremendous job. When I say tremendous job, I mean a job no other Republican president has ever tried to do with respect to dismantling the administrative state’-a reference to a favorite line of Steve Bannon's. It's ironic, in a way, that whatever is changing in Orange County that is leading to all this political turmoil and opportunity for the left has also made an opening for Baugh, who as a congressman would be a much more stalwart handmaiden of the Republican agenda than Rohrabacher has been.” The Atlantic, [6/4/18]

Trump Was Unanimously Convicted On 34 Felony Counts. “On May 30, Trump was convicted of 34 felony counts of falsifying business records to cover up a hush money payment to Stormy Daniels, an adult film actress. Baugh told City News Service that after Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, his preferred presidential candidate, dropped out of the race in May 2016, Baugh turned to fundraising for Trump. ‘It's absurd,’ Baugh said of the claims he never wanted Trump elected president. ‘I've even said glowing things about him after his State of the Union and his address to Congress.
